CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Alzheimer Society of Chatham-Kent is currently seeking persons who are interested in furthering our mission, “To improve the quality of life of people with Alzheimer’s disease or related dementias through superior programs and research.”

Through this volunteer role as a BOARD MEMBER, you will assist in providing guidance and support for the strategic plan, fund development opportunities and awareness. In order to maintain a balanced skill set, current opportunities are available in the areas of:

- Accounting (CGA or CA)
- Law
- Caregiver
- Youth
- Senior Business Administration
- Rural / Small Community Living

Today, 181,000 Ontarians have dementia, a number that is expected to rise 40% to 255,000 by 2020, ten short years away. As we face this crisis, you can help us to be the leader in care and support.
